

Declaration of Office of the Narcotics Control Board (ONCB)

Title: Integrity and Transparency Policy of ONCB's Administration

Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC) designated all government agencies to undergo the Integrity and Transparency Assessment (ITA). In the fiscal year of 2017, it assigned that the executives shall express their intention of being honest in order to demonstrate their determination or commitment to lead the agencies with integrity, honesty, morality, and transparency to be free from corruption and ready for audit.

In this regard, ONCB has prescribed the ONCB's Integrity and Transparency Policy as follows;

1. Transparency: The policy on standards of transparency and anti-corruption is designated. Work systems and mechanisms, such as, purchasing and hiring system, compliant management system, disclosure of and access to organisation's information, and opportunities for stakeholders to take part in work process are also developed and improved in compliance with prescribed standards.

2. Accountability: Executives at all levels promote transparency in their agencies, and among government officials and officers at all levels to commit to integrity, ethics, and honesty in accordance with the ethic codes. Work and administration mechanisms/handbooks which strictly correspond with relevant laws and regulations are set in place so as to help officers to reduce their consideration process and to be ready for taking responsibility on their errors or wrongdoings. The internal audit system is also improved to work more efficiently.

3. Corruption-free work environment: Executives at all levels play role and give attention to the protection of bribery in their offices, prohibiting officers from requesting for money, objects, or other benefits from stakeholders, and preventing them from abusing their power and committing policy corruption.

4. Organisational culture and virtue: Serious actions are taken to prevent the conflict of interests in the organisation. The officers are equipped with knowledge and understanding on the conflict of interests to be able to distinguish between their own and public benefits.

The ...

The handbooks on the prevention of conflict of interests are also made in order to create the organisational culture of zero-tolerance on corruption. This eventually creates collective anti-corruption culture.

5. Organisational integrity: The work standards/handbooks of core missions are made in accordance with regulations that include safeguarding and auditing system to prevent ignorance of duties, and promote integrity and transparency in human resource management, budget management, fair division of labour, equality, and non-discrimination.
